Bachelor of Teaching (Early Childhood Education)

This new course offers opportunities for qualified child care workers in the early childhood field to achieve professional status as a teacher. The course has been designed to build upon students' existing knowledge and focus on the development of the professional attributes of teaching. Applicants will have completed a Diploma of Children's Services or an approved equivalent.

Application for this course should be made through the completion of a direct application form available on www.ballarat.edu.au/apply. A certified copy of the applicant's Diploma of Children's Services must be lodged with the application.
